Harriet and Norman Cohen

Harriet and Norman Cohen joined the nascent Jericho Jewish Center when they moved to Jericho in 1957, and were regular worshippers in our synagogue and part of our community. Harriet passed away in 2002 and Norman left us in February of 2017.

Harriet and Norman were each community leaders in their own right. They served as officers, board members, pro-bono counsel and in a wide variety of roles in different organizations throughout the JJC, Jericho and Syosset communities.

They raised their three children, Meryl Gardner, Glenda McConn and Neil Cohen, here in the Jericho Jewish Center. Following the example set by their parents, all three are active in their synagogues and communities. They were extremely proud grandparents of Isaac Schlecht, Andrew McConn, Betty McConn, and Beckie Cohen.

This Torah is dedicated in the memory of Harriet and Norman by Sherry and Neil Cohen. The Talmud (Berachot 18b) says the righteous, even in passing, are considered alive. This Torah is Harriet and Norman's living legacy, and represents their love of Judaism and the Jericho Jewish Center.

What is a Torah Siyum?

A Torah Siyum is the completion and dedication of a new Torah. We are celebrating the writing of the Torah, the donations and the hard work that went into making this day possible. It is fitting to do this on Yom Yerushalayim, Jerusalem Reunification Day. The Cohen Family Torah will be read beginning with Shavuot when we celebrate the giving of the Torah. We thank Neil and Sherry Cohen and everyone else who helped us reach this joyous day.
